

Are you wishing to upgrade your teaching and advocacy skills in the field of adolescent health?

16th EuTEACH international summer school

July 9th – 14th 2023
Lausanne, Switzerland

www.euteach.com

Aims

The main purpose of the summer school is to enable participants to develop and implement effective strategies to teach and advocate in the field of adolescent health

Objectives

- Implement interactive & innovative approaches in your teaching practice
- Demonstrate awareness of fundamental attitudes pertaining to the care of young people through reflective practice
- Use the power of collective intelligence to enrich your knowledge, to enhance creativity and to build innovative approaches & projects

Target audience

- Professionals with current or future teaching responsibilities in the field of adolescent health
- Health professionals working with young people
- Professionals involved in public health, policy making and advocacy for young people

Information and registration

Location University of Lausanne, Switzerland

Dates From Sunday July 9th 2023, 5pm to Friday July 14th, around 4.30pm

Fee

Country	Early bird (until 31.3.2023)	From 1.4.2023
High & Upper-middle income*	950 euros	1150 euros
Low & Lower-middle income*	700 euros	850 euros

* According to the current World Bank classification

The fee includes : training sessions, lunches, coffee breaks, welcome dinner and gala dinner. // Transportation to/from Switzerland and accommodation are not included

Language Reasonable fluency in English is essential as participants are expected to actively participate in discussions and to share their own experiences.

Registration until 15th May 2023

More info & registration

EuTEACH website

Limited number of participants
Register as soon as possible !

The current sanitary guidelines will be respected. For cancellation policy, see our website